8. Land located at No. ○, Section ○, ○ Road, ○ District, ○ County and building located at No. ○, Section ○, ○ Road, ○ District, ○ County.

The Foundation may continue to accept donations (contributions) from individuals or relevant organizations.

Article 5 (Headquarters)

The Foundation has its headquarters set up at No. ○, Section ○, ○ Road, ○ Township/Town/City/District, ○ City/County, and may, upon approval of the competent authority, set up subsidiary branches in special municipalities or counties (cities) based on necessary for operation.

Article 6 (Organization)

The Foundation's board of directors consists of ○ directors (the number of directors should be singular and between 5 and 25). One director shall be elected as the chairman. Tenure of directors should be ○ years. Directors may be reelected. The Foundation has ○ supervisors with tenure of ○ years. Supervisors may be reelected.

No remuneration is paid to the directors and supervisors of the Foundation.

Article 7 (Board's Responsibilities)

The Board of Directors has the following responsibilities:

1. Review and approve the annual operation plan and budget.
2. Review and approve executed operating report, final accounts, and balance sheets.
3. Raise funds.
4. Manage, use, and dispose of property.
5. Hold the reelection (byelection) and recall of directors.
6. Deliberate on the amendments to the Act of Donation.
7. Resolve on other important matters in relation to ○○○.

Article 8 (Supervisors' Responsibilities)

Supervisors have the following responsibilities:

1. Supervise the business operations and finances.
2. Audit account books, documents, and property data.
3. Supervise the tasks under relevant laws and regulations and the Act of Donation.

Article 9 (Election of Directors)

The first-term directors of the Foundation should be appointed by the donors. The second-term directors and thereafter should be elected by the first-term directors from among enthusiastic believers by a show of hands or voting (methods of election may be customized; for example, if candidates one to two times the number of directors to be elected are nominated, anonymous limited votes should be adopted), provided that the donors and their spouses and relatives within the third degree of kinship should be less than one-third of total directors to be elected. Directors who are spouses or relatives within the third degree of kinship should be less than one-third of total directors.

Article 10 (Election of Chairman)

The donors should convene a board meeting to elect the chairman after appointing the first-term directors.

The chairman should be elected from among the directors by a show of hands or voting (using anonymous limited votes) with the majority of the directors' votes. If no candidate wins the majority of the directors' votes, the chairman should be elected from the two candidates with top votes.

The chairman is responsible to manage internal matters of the Foundation and represents the Foundation externally.

Article 11 (Byelection of Directors)

If a director's position becomes vacant for some reason, the board of directors should hold a byelection to elect an appropriate person to fill the vacancy until the former director's tenure expires.

Article 12 (Reelection of Directors)

The Board of Directors should meet to reelect the directors within two months before the expiration of tenure, and should register the change of directors with the court upon approval of the competent authority.

If the chairman does not convene a board meeting to hold the reelection of directors within the deadline, one-third of the directors may elect one director from among themselves to convene a board meeting upon approval of the competent authority.

The reelected directors shall assume office after the expiration of the former directors' tenure.

Article 13 (Election of Supervisors)

The first-term supervisor of the Foundation should be appointed by the donors. The second-term directors and thereafter should be elected by the first-term supervisors from among enthusiastic believers by a show of hands or voting (methods of election may be customized; for example, if candidates 1 to 2 times the number of supervisors to be elected are nominated, anonymous limited votes should be adopted), provided that the donors and their spouses and relatives within the third degree of kinship should be less than one-third of total supervisors to be elected. Supervisors should not be spouses or relatives within the third degree of kinship of other supervisors or directors.

Article 14 (Byelection of Supervisors)

If a supervisor's position becomes vacant for some reason, the supervisors should hold a byelection to elect an appropriate person to fill the vacancy until the former supervisor's tenure expires.

Article 15 (Reelection of Supervisors)

Supervisors should meet to reelect the supervisors within two months before the expiration of tenure, and should register the change of supervisors with the court upon approval of the competent authority.

If supervisors do not convene a meeting to hold the reelection of supervisors within the deadline, one-third of the supervisors may elect one supervisor from among themselves to convene a meeting upon approval of the competent authority.

The reelected supervisors shall assume office after the expiration of the former supervisors' tenure.

Article 16 (Reelection of Chairman)

After new directors are elected, directors with the most votes should convene a board meeting to elect the new chairman. If a board meeting has not been convened for one month, it shall be called by directors with the second most votes. If a board meeting is still not convened, it shall be called by one director designated by the competent authority.

Article 17 (Board Meetings)

The chairman shall convene a board meeting every ○ months, and may convene an extraordinary meeting if he/she deems necessary or if more than one-half of the directors make a request in writing.

A board meeting shall be convened and chaired by the chairman. If the chairman refuses to convene a board meeting, more than one-half of the directors may elect one director from among themselves to convene a board meeting upon approval of the competent authority.

Article 18 (Attendance)

A board meeting shall be convened with the majority of the directors present.

A board's resolution shall be adopted by the majority of the directors present in a board meeting attended by more than half of the directors. The following important matters, however, should be adopted by more than two-thirds of the directors present in a board meeting attended by more than two-thirds of the directors and approved by the competent authority:

1. Amendments to the Act of Donation.
2. Disposal, change, or pledge of property.
3. Dissolution or change of competent authority of the Foundation.

Article 19 (Recusal)

When directors or supervisors are involved in conflicts of interest in the course of performing their duties, they shall recuse themselves.

The conflicts of interest referred to in the preceding paragraph shall mean the acquisition of benefits by directors or supervisors or their spouses or relatives within the second degree of kinship, directly or indirectly, from their action or inaction.

Article 20 (Prohibition of Benefits)

Directors or supervisors shall not take advantage of their powers, opportunities or methods to seek benefits for themselves or their spouses or relatives within the second degree of kinship.

The benefits referred to in the preceding article and the preceding paragraph shall mean the improper addition of value to money, articles or other property of directors or supervisors or their spouses or relatives within the second degree of kinship due to the performance of their duties.

Article 21 (Acting Chairman)

If the chairman is absent for some reason or recuses himself/herself from the proposals related to him/her, the directors shall elect one director from among themselves as chair.

Article 22 (Proxy)

If directors are unable to attend a board meeting in person, they may appoint other directors to attend on their behalf, provided that each director shall only act as one director's proxy to execute rights specified in the power of attorney.

Article 23 (Recall of Directors)

Directors who violate the laws and regulations or neglect their duties may be removed by the board of directors by voting. The recall of directors referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be approved by the majority of directors present in a board meeting attended by more than two-thirds of the directors.

Article 24 (Recall of Supervisors)

Supervisors who violate the laws and regulations or neglect their duties may be removed by the supervisors by voting.

The recall of supervisors referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be approved by the majority of supervisors present in a board meeting attended by more than two-thirds of the supervisors.

Article 25 (Funds)

The Foundation's donated property shall not be used; funds shall be deposited in a financial institution or post office with a specific maturity date.

The Foundation shall use interest accruing from donated property and income generated after establishment to engage in operation in line with the purpose or aim of establishment as specified in the Act of Donation.

Except for petty cash, the Foundation's income and contributions shall be deposited in a financial institution or post office.

Article 26

The property of the Foundation shall be stored and used in the name of the Foundation and supervised by the competent authority.

Article 27 (Accounting System)

The fiscal year of the Foundation is from January 1 to December 31 of a year.

The Foundation's accounting system is on an accrual basis. The Foundation shall have account books or accounts in place, obtain legal vouchers, and keep accounts accordingly.

Except for outstanding accounts, the account books or accounts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be retained for at least ten years after the financial statements are reported to the competent authority for reference. Except for those that should be retained permanently or outstanding accounts, accounting vouchers shall be retained for at least five years after the financial statements are reported to the competent authority for reference.

Before destroying account books or accounts or accounting vouchers, the Foundation shall submit a list of account books or accounts or accounting vouchers to the board of directors and supervisors for review and approval.

Article 28 (Instruments)

By the end of January of every year, the Foundation shall submit the annual operation plan and budget to the board of directors for approval and then report to the competent authority for reference in accordance with the regulations.

Within five months after the end of every year, the Foundation shall submit executed operating report, final accounts, and balance sheets to the board of directors for approval and then report to the competent authority for reference in accordance with the regulations.

Article 29 (Ownership of Surplus Property)

The Foundation shall exist permanently. In case of dissolution for some reason, the Foundation's surplus property shall belong to the self-governing organizations where the headquarters of the Foundation is located.

Article 30 (Regulations)

Unspecified matters in the Act of Donation shall be governed by the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 31 (Effect)

The Act of Donation, and amendments thereafter, shall take effect upon approval of the competent authority and completion of legal procedures.

(11) Plan for Using Annual Surplus

Plan for Using ○ (Year) Surplus of ○○○ Foundation

Created by: ○ ○○ (signature)

1. Total surplus for ○ (year): NT$○. (A)
2. The plan for using annual surplus is as follows: (Tick off ☐: (1), (2), or (1)+(2))
 - ☐ (1) Total amount transferred to property: NT$○. (B)
 - ☐ (2) Amount retained for future use: NT$○. (C)

P.S. If (2) is selected, fill in the table below:

(Example)

Retain for future use	Purpose of Use	Description	Amount	Note
Total			(C)

Description:

1. The total amount retained for future use should equal annual surplus (i.e., $(B)+(C)=(A)$).
2. The span of years retained for use should be limited to four years. For example, the surplus in 2011 may be retained for use from 2012 to 2015.
3. In case of changes in the plan, amount, or period of the use of surplus to be approved by the relevant authority, a foundation should immediately apply for a change in the plan in the following year (for example, in case of any change in the use of the surplus in 2011, which may be retained for use from 2012 to 2015, it should be filed in 2013) to comply with regulations and for the revenue service office's follow-up.
